

JOHNSON

Miss Nellie Hunt is ill from grip.

Sugar makers are more than busy these days.

Miss Clara Stiles is visiting her brother, H. Stiles.

Mrs. Parker Stearns is numbered among the sick.

Miss Doris Rand returned to her school in Hatfield, Mass., Monday.

Miss Cleo Emery returned to her school in Cambridge the first of the week.

Miss Catherine Robinson of South Hero is a guest of Mrs. O. A. McFarland.

Mrs. Churchill of Bakersfield was a guest of Mrs. W. H. Stearns last week.

Wendall, the four years old son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Griswold, is ill from fever.

Mrs. Bert Stearns of Eden was a guest of Mrs. W. H. Stearns the last of the week.

M. S. Hill will begin rebuilding the Hill house on Pearl street in the early spring.

E. H. Sherwin was an official visitor at the O. E. S. at Jeffersonville Thursday evening.

Rev. and Mrs. I. Mellor are in attendance at the Vermont Conference at Montpelier this week.

The Carys are moving from the Gonyea tenement to the Goodwin house, vacated by the Humphreys.

Miss Luther, who has been nursing in the family of B. M. Cunningham, has returned to St. Albans.

Mrs. J. K. Putnam returned to Cambridge Monday, after visiting her mother, Mrs. Geo. Butler.

Miss Lottie Doane of the central telephone office has gone to Bakersfield for a two weeks' vacation.

George Fifield, who has moved to Randolph, will continue in the employ of the Brigham Creamery Co.

Miss F. L. Benton of North Ferrisburg is visiting her grandfather, J. V. Barton, and aunt, Miss I. M. Barton.

Judge Sears and daughter, who have been here to see their daughter and sister, returned to Irasburg Monday.

The Plus Ultra class of the M. E. church will serve sugar on snow at the church on Saturday night from 6 to 8 o'clock.

Miss Helen Hunt left Saturday to return to her school in Newport, visiting her sister, Mrs. J. O. Sheldon, in Woodville, N. H., over Sunday.

Fletcher and Morgan Potter of Burlington are spending the Easter vacation at Knollwood with their uncle and aunt, Grover and Helen Fletcher.

Invitations are out for the marriage of Harold Norris Gordon and Miss Ruth Clark at the First Congregational Church at Newton Center, Mass., on Saturday evening, April 15. At home after Aug. 1 at Johnson, Vt.

Word has been received here of the death of Miss Stella Provost of Jeffersonville, which occurred at Swanton March 20 from diphtheria. Miss Provost had many friends here, who extend sincere sympathy to her family.

Misses Drusilla Waterman and Jennie Maxfield and Guy Fallington are home from the U. V. M. for the Easter vacation. Erle Holmes, who has been here, returned to Burlington Monday as he teaches in a Business College at night.

Methodist Church

The following are the officials and committees appointed at the fourth quarterly conference for the coming year:—Stewards, L. E. Tatro, C. D. Oakes, M. F. Gray, F. W. Ward, W. D. Patch, E. W. Griswold, Ida M. Barton, Anna L. Oakes, Mrs. Emma Hodgkins, Dora Jones, Mrs. N. J. Perry, Mrs. F. F. Davis; Trustees, L. E. Tatro, C. D. Oakes, M. F. Gray, L. M. Barton, N. J. Perry, Bert Miller; Foreign Missions, I. M. Barton, A. L. Oakes, Mrs. H. Mears, Flossie Demeritt; Home Missions and Church Extension, Mrs. N. J. Perry, Mrs. Emma Hodgkins, W. D. Patch; Sunday schools, M. H. Davis, A. L. Oakes, L. B. Worthly, Mrs. Homer Kneeland, M. F. Gray, S. Hodges, Mrs. Carl Stewart, Mrs. F. F. Davis; Tracts, Mrs. Worthly, Miss Alice Mills; Temperance, E. W. Griswold, L. E. Tatro; Education, M. H. Davis, Mrs. F. F. Davis, Miss Zilda Baker; Freedmen's Aid, N. J. Perry, Mrs. M. F. Gray; Church Records, M. F. Gray; Auditors, R. E. Field, E. W. Griswold; Pardonage and Furniture, L. M. Barton, A. L. Oakes, H. W. Peck, M. F. Gray, M. F. Gray, M. Gray; Church Music, F. M. Ward, L. M. Barton; Ministerial Support, M. F. Gray, F. M. Ward, L. M. Barton, Trier of Appeals, H. W. Peck.

Ithiel Falls

Miss Myrtle Stone of Bakersfield is visiting friends here.

The high school students are having a vacation of two weeks.

Hersa Gates of Cambridge is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Homer Holmes.

The condition of Mrs. Sarah Holdridge, who has been ill, is much improved.

E. M. Davis and H. O. Stiles were in Burlington Thursday to attend the listers meeting.

Winfred Heath of Stowe High School is with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Heath during the spring recess.

Garfield Road

George Jones and family visited relatives in Elmore Sunday.

James Jones and family were visitors at Chas. Jones' Sunday.

Nelson Styles was a business visitor in Stowe the last of the week.

George Jones had the misfortune to lose three cows the past week.

Charles Wiltshire of Morrisville was a recent visitor at Arthur Stowell's.

Mrs. Fred Marshall and son were visitors at Mrs. A. C. Marshall's the first of the week.

Johnson High School Notes

The Easter recess will end the morning of Tuesday, April 11th.

Some new bookcases have been presented to the school and will be ready for books, in Miss Rand's room, next term. And the end is not yet!

"Rip" Gallagher, an old Vermont varsity pitcher, has contracted to coach the base ball team. He will be assisted by Harold Spear of St. Albans, U. V. M. '17.

A crowd of Johnsonites were much in evidence at the basket ball game between P. A. and Stowe at Morrisville last week. Some new yell's have been prepared by the committee, with Fletcher '97 as chairman, and these will appear in the Johnsonian next week.

The subject for debate in the Triangular League consisting of Johnson High School, Bellows Free Academy and St. Albans High School, will be "Immigration to the United States should be further restricted by means of a literacy test." On Friday evening, April 28, J. H. S. will take the affirmative of this question against St. Albans High at Johnson, and on the same evening, the other J. H. S. team will take the negative against B. F. A. at Fairfax.

An examination in General Arithmetic was given by Mr. Hayford on last Thursday afternoon, the day before the regular examination period, to the whole school. Those passing this examination will be exempt from the work in that subject during the coming term. The work in Arithmetic for the whole school has shown such improvement, and such good results, which will show in all the High school work in mathematics, that the teachers express themselves as feeling well repaid for putting in the subject.

Ober Hill

A. W. Lanpher transacted business in Johnson Monday.

H. C. Parker and Arthur Stearns of Johnson was on the Hill Sunday.

Miss Mabel Manning of Centerville spent Sunday with her parents in this place.

Dr. Leach of Hyde Park was on the Hill last week to see Mrs. Lew Lanpher, who is ill.

Orel Currier who has been attending school in Johnson is at home helping his father sugar.

Nathan Jones and family are visiting in Lowell, preparatory to moving there in near the future.

A brother of Frank Chaffee's from New Hampshire is stopping with him for the present.

Miss Flossie Manning, who has been at the home of T. A. Richardson in North Hyde Park, came home Monday.

W. F. Manning transacted business in Morrisville the past week. He will still continue selling grain at North Hyde Park.

Johnson Normal School Notes

Dr. Peaks spent Friday and Saturday in Montpelier and Burlington.

Miss Verna Sears of Irasburg, who has been seriously ill of pneumonia, is much improved.

Miss Elizabeth Coffin has returned to the Normal.

Miss Edna Bowen is back after her operation for appendicitis.

Miss Slack and Miss Wiswell are out of school on account of illness.

The annual Prize Speaking Contest of the Delphian Society of the Normal School will be held on Tuesday evening, April 4, in the Johnson Opera House. There will be 10 contestants and special music by the Glee Club. Admission, 15c.

Johnson Grange Notes

The charter members' meeting March 16, drew a full house, the chairs were filled with charter members. The program arranged by Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Waterman was well carried out and a social hour was spent. Refreshments of apples and pop corn were served. The following program for April 6 will be carried out: Singing, choir; roll call, "Helpful hints for the Home Outside and In"; music; recitation, Sabine Hodges; question, "How may the Women in the Country homes find more time for study, recreation and out-of-door life." Mrs. F. F. Davis and Mrs. W. F. Waters; song, "Because he joined the Grange; selected reading, E. H. Sherwin; question, How can we improve our back roads in town, F. F. Davis, H. V. Stearns; farce, Hiram's Best Girl, Mrs. Alma Davis, W. F. Waters, Floyd Ellsworth; music.

Big Libraries.

There are at least five libraries in the world which contain over 1,000,000 volumes each.

East Johnson

H. Griswold has been in Elmore.

Kate Kinsley is visiting Mrs. H. F. Boyce.

Miss Inez Perry has returned from Swanton.

Gerald Whitcomb was in Hyde Park Wednesday.

Miss Doris Rand is spending her vacation at home.

Mrs. W. H. Stearns was in St. Johnsbury recently.

Mrs. S. A. Griswold has been visiting relatives in Waterbury.

Miss Amy Perry is spending her vacation with her parents.

Mrs. Bert Stearns was the guest of Mrs. W. H. Stearns Thursday.

Miss Gladys Stearns has returned home from Pennsylvania.

Lyman Peck of Hyde Park visited his daughter, Mrs. Chas. Hayford, recently.

Miss Mabel Sweet went to see her mother at Fanny Allen hospital Thursday.

STOWE

Edwin Hall is on the sick list.

Paul Raymond is assistant buttermaker at the creamery.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Leavitt went to Boston Saturday.

Mrs. C. F. Eddy is recovering from a severe attack of the grip.

A daughter was born last week to Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Martin.

Frank Muzzey and wife of Montpelier are visiting at Albert Laraway's.

Mrs. Fay Evans of Middlebury is the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. C. McMahon.

Munn Boardman is in Barre for a few days.

Prof. Kollo Reynolds of Montpelier was a visitor in town a day or two last week.

Miss Dorothy Barrows went Saturday to St. Albans to visit her aunt, Mrs. A. A. Emery.

Mrs. Will Miner, who has been seriously ill, threatened with pneumonia, is slowly improving.

Mrs. Mertie Smith is ill from pneumonia and is being cared for by Miss O'Brien of Waterbury.

Miss Margaret Pike of Waterbury and Muriel Pike of Essex Junction spent Sunday with Stowe relatives.

Miss Margaret Harris of Middlebury College is spending the week with her parents at the lower village.

Lyle Douglass, who has finished work at the Mt. Mansfield creamery, passed a part of last week at his home in Waterbury.

R. E. McMahon was the guest of the Wyllis-Overland Co. at Toledo, Ohio, last week, an annual affair with the Overland agents.

Mrs. Thomas A. Douglass has returned from Jericho, where she was called by the death of her aunt, Mrs. Louisa Blood.

Owing to the Vermont Methodist Conference being held at Montpelier this week no services will be held at the local church Sunday.

Mrs. Celia Hawley and daughter, Ione, have moved to Moscow and their house on Bridge street will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Farnce.

Mrs. C. M. Lawrence and Miss Jennie Wells have returned from a trip to Boston, where they purchased goods for the former's millinery store. See adv.

R. H. Hill has tapped 100 trees and reports that sap run the latter part of last week. Snow is several feet deep in the woods and a good sugar season is expected.

Oscar Kahn wishes to say that the story circulated about him by his competitors in Stowe, where he has a big trade, are without foundation—simply to get business. Oscar says he is crazy to get business but in no other respect as far as he knows. Watch for O. K.—adv.

The remains of John A. Gorham of Randolph were brought to Stowe Saturday afternoon and burial was made in Riverbank cemetery. Mr. Gorham was 66 years of age last July. He was a native of Canada, but passed a large part of his life in Randolph and Hartford, Conn. He is survived by his wife, who was formerly Miss Emma Parish, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philander Parish, for many years residents of Stowe. Mrs. Gorham and her sisters, Miss Edna Parish of Randolph, Miss Sarah Parish of Northfield and Mrs. H. C. Reed of Berlin, accompanied the remains to Stowe.

Next Sunday morning Rev. Davis will speak on "The Beginning of Knowledge." Sunday school at the close of the morning service.

C. E. meeting at 7 p. m. in the vestry. Consecration meeting; leader, George Chapin.

Waterbury

L. V. Smilie has returned home from Philadelphia.

I. Anderson of St. Albans is visiting at A. L. Laraway's.

Miss Maud Darrah was at home from Hyde Park over Sunday.

Rome Bennett is moving to A. D. Stowell's tenement house.

A son arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Miller March 23.

Wallace Armstrong of the U. V. M. was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Darrah over Sunday.

Misses Edla and Evelyn Willey of Greensboro are visiting their grand mother, Mrs. Edla Willey.

H. A. Jackson and daughter, Mrs. Olga Smith, were called to Waitsfield Monday by the death of a relative.

Rev. and Mrs. G. A. Smith are attending conference at Montpelier. Their many friends hope they will return here for another year.

Why He Went.

"Do you go to Sunday school every Sunday, my little man?" "Sure, pa won't let me go to the movies if I don't."—New York World.

When It Comes to Advertising, There Is No Medium "Just as Good"

Will be shown at our OPENING on

Saturday, April 8,

Correct Styles, Correct Prices,

We cordially invite your inspection.

Mrs. C. M. Lawrence,

Successor to Mrs. M. A. Jenney,

STOWE, VERMONT

ROYAL
BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure
Made from Cream of Tartar
NO ALUM—NO PHOSPHATE

WOLCOTT

Miss Carrie Poor is on the sick list.

Cedric Davis is working for James Belmont.

Miss Mary Habbell is home from St. Johnsbury.

Miss Lucy Preston is seriously ill at her home here.

Fred McGinnis of Johnson is working for C. E. Haskell.

A. H. Perkins transacted business in Hardwick Friday.

Mrs. Priscilla Franklin is suffering an attack of tonsillitis.

Mrs. Clara P. Leach passed Sunday with friends in Morrisville.

Frank Alger has gone to Danville, where he has employment.

George Pope and Bob McDonald were visitors in Hardwick Monday.

Mrs. Ella Pangle of Stowe is visiting in her sister, Mrs. Amos Boardman.

E. C. Judd and wife returned home from Bakersfield the first of the week.

Enos Lafluer left town Monday for Lowell, Mass., where he has employment.

Mrs. Ed. Town of St. Johnsbury was a visitor at E. W. Generess' over Sunday.

Miss Catherine Robinson of North Hero is visiting her friend, Miss Mary Habbell.

Hugh Calderwood and wife of Crafts-bury were guests at Henry King's Sunday.

Mrs. Clara Moody goes the first of April to Morrisville to work for Mrs. D. N. Hutchins.

Mrs. Harry Waite and two sons of St. Johnsbury are guests of the Mesdames Cogswell and Mudgett.

Robert McDonald and family were the guests of Fred McNally and wife in Jeffersonville over Sunday.

Rev. F. R. Keeler and wife left for Montpelier Tuesday to attend the Vermont Methodist Conference.

The condition of Mrs. W. E. Barter, who was reported critically ill the past week, is practically unchanged.

A party and dance was held at the home of G. L. Preman in Elmore Friday evening, which several from here enjoyed.

Miss Alice Bullard of Burlington is home because of the illness of her mother, Mrs. John French, who was operated on Tuesday by Drs. Rublee and George of Hardwick.

The ladies of the W. R. C. will serve new sugar at their hall Saturday afternoon, April 1, to all who want it. This will be the starting of funds to have the hall wired for electricity.

The funeral of Levi Taylor, whose remains were brought here from East St. Johnsbury, was held from the Cong'l church here Saturday at 2 p. m., Rev. J. Q. Angell of St. Johnsbury officiating, assisted by Rev. F. R. Keeler. The services at the grave were in charge of Minister Lodge, F. & A. M.

Organize Trout Club

For the purpose of maintaining fish and game preserves in the towns of Wolcott and Hardwick, and to erect a club house, articles of association have been filed by the Lake Wapanacki Trout club, Inc., with capital stock of $5,000 divided into 150 shares. The office of the club will be at Hardwick. The incorporators are W. H. Taylor, E. M. Crane, James A. Gallagher, Earl B. Welch, Frank D. Taylor, George James, Melvin N. Morse and Charles T. Pierce.

Wolcott Methodist Church Notes

Sunday, April 1. Conference Sunday. No preaching, but Sunday School at the usual hour 11:45 a. m. Evening service at 7 p. m. Prayer meeting.

Centerville

Sugar makers are getting busy these days.

School commenced Monday with Mrs. Ray Baker as teacher.

Dolph Collins was in Burlington last Thursday on lister business.

Miss Bertha Collins spent Saturday last at E. G. Sherwin's at the Street.

Several from here attended the funeral of Jos. Towle at Morrisville last Friday.

John Herrick, at present a resident of Morrisville, visited relatives in this place Tuesday.

Edgar Whitecomb, who has had quite a serious time with the grip, has recovered and was able to visit Morrisville last Saturday.

Relatives here will be interested to learn that Mrs. Arthur Campbell and son, Laurence, of Barre are spending several weeks in Florida.

John Towle, who was called to Vermont by the death of his brother Joseph, has been visiting his cousin, Mrs. A. C. Davis. He returned to his home at Amsterdam, N. Y., Wednesday morning.

Amos Davis and Will Hapgood were visitors at the Fanny Allen Hospital last Saturday—the former to visit his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Will Davis, and the latter to visit his wife, both being at the hospital and doing well.

Cady's Falls

Harvey Bennett and wife were visitors at Chas. Miner's Sunday.

Misses Amy and Hazel Adams of Stowe are spending a few days at E. K. Seavers'.

Mrs. Everett Calkins and son were visitors at Gilbert Broadwell's the last of the week.

Mrs. Laura Warren and son, Delbert, were visitors at Mrs. Amelia Worden's the past week.

Mrs. Ada Smith went to Wolcott last Wednesday, called there by the death of her father, Joseph Towle.

Everett and Frank Calkins and Leo Ballard took in the automobile show at Burlington the last of the week.

Twin babies were born to Wallace Seymour and wife last Wednesday. The little girl died the same day, but mother and son are doing well.

Putting It Gently.

Mr. Henpeck—I hear that young Jones and his wife are not getting along very well. Mrs. Henpeck (authoritatively)—Jones should never have married when he did. He was too young to realize the step he was taking. Mr. Henpeck—Yes, I know. But I like the boy. We have many things in common.

Wolcott's Free Library.

Acknowledgment of subscriptions towards the Free library, Wolcott. Collected by Miss Ethel Taylor. A. V. Cooper 2.00, C. C. Fisher 2.00, H. King 1.00, F. Kipp 1.00, L. G. Taylor, 2.00, L. C. Udall 1.00, G. R. Bickford 1.00, A. H. Perkins 1.00, C. Humphrey 1.00, L. E. Jennings 2.00, R. Golden 50c, I. J. Lindsey 2.00 and books, C. W. Jones 2.00 and books, C. H. Parsons 50c.

Collected by Mrs. H. A. Parker, M. J. Walsh 1.00, R. A. Cota 50c, Mrs. A. G. Bullard 25c, Mrs. M. A. Mudgett 50c, Mrs. J. S. Cogswell 50c, J. L. Peck 25c, D. La Palme 1.00, O. Staples 1.00, Mrs. M. J. Reed 1.00, H. B. Parker 50, L. N. Billings 1.00, Mrs. A. Albee 25c, Geo. Allen 50c, Mrs. H. H. Parker 1.00, H. A. Parker 1.00, Mrs. E. Boardman 50c, Elmer Bishop 25c, B. W. Guyer 1.17 and books, F. B. Morse, Morrisville, 1.00, Mrs. O. W. Davis Waterbury Centre, 1.00, F. R. Keeler 1.00. Further gifts will be gratefully acknowledged by the treasurer; Mrs. F. R. Keeler, Wolcott.

Further amounts collected. Collected by Mrs. M. Parker, M. S. Parker 1.00, Martha Parker 2.00, Mrs. T. Bowen 1.00, Mrs. U. Martin 50c, U. Martin 1.00, Mrs. J. Generess 50c, Homer Fisher 1.00.

Mr. Henpeck—I hear that young Jones and his wife are not getting along very well. Mrs. Henpeck (authoritatively)—Jones should never have married when he did. He was too young to realize the step he was taking. Mr. Henpeck—Yes, I know. But I like the boy. We have many things in common.

Wolcott's Free Library.

Acknowledgment of subscriptions towards the Free library, Wolcott. Collected by Miss Ethel Taylor. A. V. Cooper 2.00, C. C. Fisher 2.00, H. King 1.00, F. Kipp 1.00, L. G. Taylor, 2.00, L. C. Udall 1.00, G. R. Bickford 1.00, A. H. Perkins 1.00, C. Humphrey 1.00, L. E. Jennings 2.00, R. Golden 50c, I. J. Lindsey 2.00 and books, C. W. Jones 2.00 and books, C. H. Parsons 50c.

Collected by Mrs. H. A. Parker, M. J. Walsh 1.00, R. A. Cota 50c, Mrs. A. G. Bullard 25c, Mrs. M. A. Mudgett 50c, Mrs. J. S. Cogswell 50c, J. L. Peck 25c, D. La Palme 1.00, O. Staples 1.00, Mrs. M. J. Reed 1.00, H. B. Parker 50, L. N. Billings 1.00, Mrs. A. Albee 25c, Geo. Allen 50c, Mrs. H. H. Parker 1.00, H. A. Parker 1.00, Mrs. E. Boardman 50c, Elmer Bishop 25c, B. W. Guyer 1.17 and books, F. B. Morse, Morrisville, 1.00, Mrs. O. W. Davis Waterbury Centre, 1.00, F. R. Keeler 1.00. Further gifts will be gratefully acknowledged by the treasurer; Mrs. F. R. Keeler, Wolcott.

Further amounts collected. Collected by Mrs. M. Parker, M. S. Parker 1.00, Martha Parker 2.00, Mrs. T. Bowen 1.00, Mrs. U. Martin 50c, U. Martin 1.00, Mrs. J. Generess 50c, Homer Fisher 1.